

AMA2559: COACHING FROM A DISTANCE: DEVELOPING YOUR TEAM WHEN YOU CAN'T BE FACE TO FACE

Course Code: 2450

Successful coaching is challenging and rewarding—but coaching remotely or in a virtual environment demands all-new rules.

The countless ways in which professionals now communicate means business can be conducted almost anywhere. This has introduced the element of distance (both real and virtual) between coach and subject. Coaching skills that once worked so effectively face-to-face won't get the job done today. For a remote or virtual environment, coaches must develop an entirely new battery of skills—from innovative ways of listening to new measures of coaching success. This new Live Online Seminar covers it all in four dynamic lessons, with a sharp focus on skill-building and modeling techniques that will enable coaches to move their teams to the next level of professional development regardless of distance.

What You'll Learn

- Diagnose the specific kind of coaching that the situation requires
- Provide coaching directed toward development, career planning and performance management
- Develop critical listening skills—to “hear between the lines”
- Make the right connections to foster cohesion and teamwork
- Execute your strategy with the appropriate set of tools and techniques
- Compensate for lack of “face time” and visual cues

Who Needs to Attend

Managers, team leaders, senior managers and project managers of global and geographically dispersed teams.
