

DEVELOPING WOMEN FOR LEADERSHIP SUCCESS

Course Code: 831404

In this course you will look at how women can maximize their strengths and build their skills to become effective leaders in any organization.

While companies with more women in leadership positions tend to see benefits to their bottom line, numerous challenges make it difficult for women to become recognized as leaders and to advance into managerial or executive positions at work. Women in Leadership identifies the specific challenges imposed on women in the workplace and provides an in-depth look at how they can combat these obstacles to maximize their strengths – helping not only women, but all professionals and organizations as they work to build the leadership skills of their employees.

What You'll Learn

Upon successful completion of the Women In Leadership Training course, you will learn how to:

- Understand the challenges that women face as they pursue leadership positions
- Build skills that enhance your development as a leader
- Develop and manage relationships to maximize your leadership potential
- Recognize special issues women leaders face when they interact with others
- Use your natural strengths to build and maintain a strong team
- Promote and encourage opportunities for women in leadership
- Use your strengths and abilities to become more empowered
